COMMUNION

We will celebrate Communion together, next Sunday, August 8th.

Greetings in the wonderful name of Jesus!!

While you're in church this Sunday, Shirley and I will be going to church with our nephew Lewie Furrow in Chattanooga, TN. We are here to perform the wedding of our great niece Ashley Furrow. She is the daughter of Lewie's brother Larry Furrow Jr. I was just honored that they would ask me to do the wedding for them. It is amazing to watch kids grow up and head into life...I'm feeling a bit old all at once...you'll have to forgive me.

On this trip we'll be stopping at another nephew's home in Knoxville, TN. for a short visit. Tommy was raised with me there in West Virginia and positioned as my little brother. Taught to sing Opera at the University of Tennessee, he has a powerful voice. He is also an excellent pianist. He is a full-time Minister of Music for the Church of God and has a wonderful gift for leading Praise and Worship. And, he's just a precious person.

From there we will go to Black Mountain, NC. and spend a couple of days with my best friend John Crognale; he's the one who is an Italian Chef. Please don't worry about me I'll be eating very well!! Ha! While at John and Mimi's house, we're hoping to get to see another great niece that I have only seen once in my life. Isn't it awful that families get separated and don't stay close? We've been trying to reconnect for a couple of years now.

On Thursday we'll be heading to West (praise the Lord) Virginia. The Louis and Stella Furrow Family reunion will be held there in Princeton on Friday. There are usually about "55" Furrows that gather from Texas, Florida, Indiana, etc. to reconnect. The event will be held at a Johnson's Chapel Baptist Church with lots of singing, laughter, and good food.

Early Saturday morning we'll head to Bent Mountain, VA., just South of Roanoke for the combined Furrow Family Reunion. It's held at the Pentecostal Holiness Church where some of my cousins are in leadership. There are usually "75" or so that attend this event. There are more guitars and Blue Grass Music at this reunion. All these events just make me happy to have such a wonderful heritage. May God help us pass it on to the next generation.

Thanks for letting me share our week with you. Thanks for filling in for me, Brother Franco. Life Family, you are all loved.
