Pastor's Pen

I'm sitting at a hotel in Princeton, WV. as I spend this "pen" time with you. We just finished an excellent time of fellowship at the Furrow Family Reunion. Today was a day for love and encouragement to be shared. As most families, there are those in our family who need a bit of encouragement during these tough days. My brother Larry and my brother Malcolm were too sick to come to the Reunion.

There were also some great times of rejoicing with some of the family who are enjoying special times. We're getting some new little Furrows. My Nephew Lynn Furrow and his wife Carmen are getting a little girl after five boys. Also the wedding for my great niece went very well. The parents were at the Reunion today and told me that the couple is just getting back from their honeymoon in Jamaica tonight. It has been an amazing day for Shirley and me. The itinerary for our trip that I gave you in the "pen" last week played out perfectly. I could not have scripted it better!!

I got an email from the office today saying that progress has been made on the Parking lot...P.T.L.!! Soon it will be sealed and striped. I want to say THANKS to Brother Stuart Fink for helping carry the project while I am away. He went the extra mile, even being sick, to see that things went well. How I praise God for our wonderful Staff. Special THANKS is in order to Brother Franco for declaring the Word of God on my behalf last Sunday. I know that others on the Staff and Deacon Ministry carried the weight of ministry while we're away...THANKS TO ALL!!

I've been trying to discern what ministry to share with you over the next few weeks. Today we'll be sharing about the ministry of Prayer in our lives and how it affects the church ministry. Sunday after next, unless the Lord changes my heart, I want to begin a series on the "One another" listings in the Bible. Have you ever noticed how many times the scriptures talk about how we are to treat, love, admonish, encourage, etc. "one another"? God has something to say to us about growing the family of God and being a blessing to each other. I look forward to sharing that time with you.

Also, I look forward to sharing this Lord's Day with you. May the Holy Spirit speak to us.

I Bless You,
 Pastor Paul
